Groundhog Day!

Today is Groundhog Day, and I must admit that I am already several days late writing this month's Dean's Message. The movie Groundhog Day is certainly one of my favorite movies of all time, but I will not get to watch it tonight as I am obviously behind on too many projects.

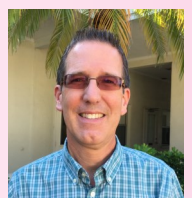

There have been some excellent accomplishments for the AGO during this difficult year. There is a wealth of new video resources on the national AGO website and YouTube pages. A brand new one is called: "Know Your Value: Introducing the AGO's New Employment Guide for Musicians." This replaces the Salary Guidelines, which had to be removed due to objections from the U. S. Labor Department. Here is the link for the webinar, which occurred just a few days ago.

In other news, I just can't help myself from commenting on the price of Super Bowl tickets this coming Sunday at Raymond James. Perhaps in some alternate universe organists are commanding $20,000 or more per ticket for a recital or competition, but that is certainly a pipedream here (sorry!). Nevertheless, I thank all of you for your tireless efforts on behalf of your churches, schools, students, families and neighbors. Keep up the good work even though it is not financially lucrative. The Kansas City Conference of the United Methodist Church challenged our Gulf Central Conference to a Souper Bowl Food Challenge, so you can drop off non-perishable food at your local United Methodist Church if you wish to help win that challenge for Tampa Bay this weekend.

If I wake up tomorrow and it's February 2 again, I guess I will just have to write a new article. Take care, everyone.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT FROM PRINCE OF PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

We were looking forward to bringing you another season of excellent music in our Art for Faith's Sake concert series, featuring concerts by the Astralis Chamber Ensemble, the Three-Organ Spectacular, and Ring Sarasota.

Unfortunately, however, we have had to make difficult decisions that have resulted in the cancellation of our 2020-2021 season. The amount of positive coronavirus cases has spiked since the holiday season, and we have suspended all in-person worship services here at Prince of Peace.

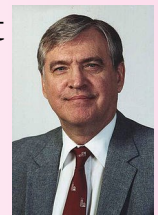

We are very fortunate that all of the musicians mentioned above have enthusiastically agreed to re-schedule for next season (2021-2022). ...we will (also) be announcing an additional three concerts taking place this fall. The concert series season will kick off in October 2021. Those details are forthcoming.

—Shawn Thomas, Pastoral Musician and Director of “Art for Faith’s Sake”
